Between the Company(ies) identified above, hereinafter called the Company and the Corporation or Partnership who is:

_____ hereinafter called the Associate and between the Associate and the Representative who is:

_____ hereafter called the Representative.

1. APPOINTMENT

The Company appoints the Agent in those territories in which both the Company, the Associate and the Agent are licensed to do business, to solicit and procure applications for all types of insurance and annuities issued by the Company subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations set forth herein.

2. COMPENSATION

All Compensation payable by the Company on such applications shall be governed solely by the contract between the Company and the Associate, and the Company shall discharge all responsibility under this contract by crediting or paying such earnings to the Associate. The division of such earnings between the Representative and the Associate, once paid by the Company to the Associate, shall be a matter solely between the Representative and the Associate to which the Company is not part.

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

The Representative agrees to comply with all applicable insurance laws and regulations and with all the written and printed rules, regulations and instructions of the Company now in force and such as may hereafter be adopted. It is understood and agreed that the Representative shall be considered an independent contractor. The Representative shall be free to exercise independent judgement as to the persons to be solicited and the time and place of solicitation. No other provision of this Agreement nor any rule or regulation of the Company shall be construed to abridge this freedom or create the relationship of employer and employee between the Company and the Representative.

The Representative and/or Associate shall maintain in good order the records and accounts of business transacted on behalf of the Company for inspection by, or delivery to the Company upon request.

The Representative has no authority to:

1. make, alter, or modify any policy or receipt nor to waive any forfeiture or any provision or condition of any policy issued by the Company.

2. receive any money on behalf of the Company except initial premiums and in strict compliance with the terms and conditions of the Company and within the rules of the Company. Money collected or received by the Representative for the Company shall immediately be paid over to the Company.

3. endorse any checks payable to the Company;

4. issue or circulate any advertising material, circular or pamphlet relating to the Company (other than materials prepared by the Company) unless the same shall have been approved in writing by the Company.

5. bind or obligate the Company or subject the Company to any liability except as expressly provided herein or otherwise authorized in writing by the Company.

The Representative shall be liable to the Company for damage or loss sustained by it as a result of any unauthorized acts of the Representative. The Representative specifically agrees to indemnify the Company from liability of any type for judgements, litigation costs, attorneys' fees, fines, penalties or other liabilities incurred by the Company as a result of such unauthorized acts.

The failure of the Company to exact strict compliance with the terms of this Agreement or the failure to declare any default when the same shall become known to the Company, shall not operate as a waiver of such conditions nor release the Representative from any obligation to perform this Agreement strictly in accordance with its terms.

3. TERMINATION

The Representative's withholding or converting to his own use, funds or property of the Company, an applicant or insured, or his violation of any governmental law or regulation relating to insurance, shall constitute an automatic breach of this Agreement which shall forthwith terminate.

This Agreement shall automatically terminate upon the death of the Representative.

Termination of this Agreement shall automatically terminate any previous agreement between the Company and the Representative. If requested, the Representative shall return to the Company at his own expense all rate books and other supplies furnished the Associate which shall be the property of the Company.

This Agreement, unless otherwise terminated as provided above, may be terminated either by the Company or the Representative by giving the other party fifteen days notice in writing at the last known address of such other party.

AGENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, dated this _____ day of _____, 20____ is between: _____ (hereinafter referred to as "Agent"), and the specific Company or Companies identified above (hereinafter each such designated Company shall be referred to as the "Company").

1. APPOINTMENT

Each designated Company appoints the Agent to solicit and procure applications for the sale of Company's insurance products shown in the attached Commission Schedule in those territories where the Company and Agent are both licensed to do business. Agent's appointment is subject to the terms, conditions and limitations of this Agreement. Agent is not appointed to sell Company's Medicare Supplement policies.

2. APPOINTMENT OF OTHER AGENTS

The Agent is authorized to refer other agents to the Company to solicit and procure insurance applications under the Agent's management and oversight (hereinafter referred to as "Other Agents"). The Other Agents must be properly licensed by the appropriate insurance regulatory authority. The Agent shall provide the referral of the Other Agents to the Company in writing by identifying the Other Agent and specifying that the Other Agent is going to solicit and procure the sale of Company insurance products under the Agent's management and oversight. The Agent shall also request the Company to code the Other Agent as being part of the Agent's hierarchy and shall obtain from the Other Agent the forms necessary to complete the contracting process.

Upon Agent's referral of an Other Agent to the Company, the Company shall determine, in its sole discretion, whether it wants to contract with the Other Agent. All contracts made with an Other Agent shall be made directly with the Company in writing on the Company's contract form which shall become effective when executed by the Company. The Company may refuse to contract with any proposed Other Agent and may terminate any contract with an Other Agent without notice to the Agent.

As used herein, the term "Agent" or "Other Agent" shall mean any person who procures, supervises, or otherwise participates in the procurement of applications for insurance products offered by the Company.

3. COMPENSATION

The Company will pay the Agent first year and renewal commissions on original premiums paid on policies written and delivered by the Agent and accepted by the Company at the percentages and for the periods and terms set forth in the attached Agent's Commission Schedule, subject to the conditions set forth herein. The Company will also pay the Agent first year and renewal commissions on original premiums paid on policies written and delivered by any appointed or assigned Other Agents as set forth in the attached Agent's Commission Schedule, less the commission earned by the Other Agent whose commission rate shall be on file with the Company. The Company will not pay first year or renewal commissions on rate increases.

- A. If insurance in the Company is issued (replacements, conversions and exchanges) which takes the place of insurance terminated or to be terminated in the Company after the new insurance is issued, the Company reserves the right to determine the rate of commission to be allowed, if any.
- B. If Agent's Commission Schedule rates are not shown or special rate quotations are made, rates shall be such as may be fixed by the Company.
- C. If the Company shall return to a policyholder all or any portion of the premiums on a policy or contract, the Agent shall, upon demand, repay to the Company the correspondingly proportionate part of the commission received by him on account of such policy or contract.
- D. The Company reserves the right to change the provisions of the Commission Schedule with thirty (30) days written notice from the Company to the Agent or Other Agent. However, any such change shall only apply to applications submitted to and accepted by the Company after such notice.

4. GENERAL PROVISIONS

The Agent agrees to comply with all applicable insurance laws and regulations and with all the written and printed rules, regulations, and instructions of the Company now in force and such as may be hereafter adopted.

- A. It is understood and agreed that the Agent shall be considered an independent contractor. As such, the Agent shall be free to exercise judgment as to the persons from whom applications for insurance policies and annuity contracts will be solicited and as to the supervision and direction of appointed or assigned Other Agents. No other provision of this Agreement or any rule or regulation of the Company shall be construed to abridge this freedom or create the relationship of employer and employee between the Company and the Agent.
- B. The Agent shall maintain accurate records of transactions made on behalf of the Company in a form satisfactory to the Company. Such books and records shall be open for examination by authorized representatives of the Company and shall remain in the property of the Company. The Agent shall return all undelivered policies to the Company for cancellation in accordance with its instructions.
- C. The Agent has no authority to receive any money on behalf of the Company except initial premiums and then only in strict compliance with the terms by the Company and within the rules of the Company. Money collected or received by the Agent for the Company shall be immediately paid over to the Company.

- D. Without liability to the Agent, the Company shall have the right to make changes in its method of conducting business; to make other appointments in the area as from time to time may seem to the Company to be desirable, and to discontinue writing all or any part of its business in any jurisdiction.
- E. The Company shall have a prior lien on any and all sums of money due or to become due to the Agent under this or any prior Agreement with the Company for any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Agent to the Company; and the Company may at any time offset against such sums of money the amount of any such indebtedness, obligation or liability.

It is understood that any "advance" or "commission advance" made by the Company to the Agent or an Other Agent from whom the Agent receives an override shall be a loan which shall create an indebtedness of the Agent to the Company repayable upon demand. The Company can require an immediate repayment of such indebtedness regardless of whether or not future compensation payable to the Agent appears to be adequate to offset such indebtedness.

In the event the Company is required to pursue collection procedures in order to collect any indebtedness, the Agent agrees to be liable for any and all Company expenses incurred by the Company.

No assignment of compensation accrued or to accrue under this Agreement shall be valid as against the Company unless authorized in writing by the Company.
- F. The Agent and any appointed or assigned Other Agents under the Agent shall have no authority to make, alter or modify any policy or receipt, nor to waive a forfeiture or any provision or condition of any policy issued by the Company, nor to incur any liability on behalf of or against the Company, except as expressly provided herein or otherwise authorized in writing by the Company.
- G. The Agent is not authorized and agrees not to publish, issue or circulate any advertising material, circular or pamphlet relating to the Company or its products unless the same shall have been approved in writing by an officer of the Company.
- H. The failure of the Company to exact strict compliance with the terms of this Agreement or the failure to declare any default when the same shall become known to it, shall not operate as a waiver of such terms nor release the Agent from the obligation to perform this Agreement strictly in accordance with its terms.
- I. All accounts and policyholders are considered to be accounts of the Company and not the Agent.
- J. The Agent authorizes the Company to furnish information, upon inquiry from any person, regarding the Agent's record with the Company, personal character, habits, ability, or cause of leaving the service of the Company. No liability shall be incurred by the Company for release of such information.
- K. It is agreed that this contract shall be interpreted and governed by the laws of the state of Texas.

5. PROHIBITED ACTS

Agent shall not, during the term of this Agreement or any time after the termination of this Agreement, directly or indirectly:

- A. Divulge or disclose the names of the Company's policyholders and accounts to any other person, firm or corporations; or
 - B. Seek to induce, promote or encourage any Company policyholders to relinquish or discontinue their Company policies.
- The items listed in A and B shall be referred to herein as the "Prohibited Acts".

In the event Agent engages in any of the Prohibited Acts, whether during the term of this Agreement or post-termination, Agent shall forever forfeit all rights to be paid any first year or renewal commissions and such commissions shall revert to the Company.

6. TERMINATION

- A. The Company shall have the right to immediately terminate this Agreement if the Agent, either directly or indirectly, by himself or as the agent of another engages in any of the following:
 1. Engages in any of the Prohibited Acts described in Section 5; or
 2. Wrongfully withholds any funds, policies, premium receipts or other property of the Company or an applicant for insurance; or
 3. Violates the insurance laws or regulations of any state in which the Agent solicits applications.
- B. This Agreement shall automatically terminate upon the death of the Agent if the Agent is an individual, the dissolution of the partnership if the Agent is a partnership, or the dissolution of a corporation, if the Agent is a corporation.
- C. Termination of this Agreement shall automatically terminate any previous agreement between the Company and the Agent. If requested, the Agent shall return to the Company at his own expense all rate books and other supplies furnished the Agent which shall remain the property of the Company.
- D. This Agreement, unless otherwise terminated as provided above, may be terminated either by the Company or the Agent by giving the other party thirty days notice in writing at the last known address of such other party.

7. COMMISSIONS AFTER TERMINATION

- A. If this Agreement is terminated under Section 5 or 6A, Agent shall forever forfeit all rights to be paid any first year or renewal commissions and such commissions shall revert to the Company. No additional first year or renewal commissions will be paid to Agent.

B. Except as set forth in Sections 5 and 6A, if this Agreement is terminated, the Agent shall receive vested commissions with respect to premiums paid to and accepted by the Company on and after the effective date of such termination, as follows:

- On business written by the Agent and his or her appointed or assigned Other Agents, the commission will be paid as provided in the Commission Schedule attached hereto.
- On business written by the Agent and his or her appointed or assigned Other Agents prior to the date of this Agreement, the commission will be paid as provided under the terms of any previous Agreements, except as otherwise provided in the Commission Schedule.
- The commission shall be payable only so long as the total compensation payable exceeds $600.00 for the calendar year. If the total compensation payable hereunder is less than $600 for the calendar year, the Agent shall forever forfeit all rights to be paid any additional compensation and such compensation shall revert to the Company.
- In case of the Agent's death, vested commission payments (pursuant to this subsection B) will be made to the surviving spouse or to the estate of the Agent when there is no surviving spouse so long as the total compensation payable exceeds $600.00 on a calendar year basis.

8. PRIOR AGREEMENTS

This Agreement replaces all prior verbal or written agreements between the Company and the Agent for all business written by the Agent and Other Agents assigned to Agent except for any agreements pertaining to the sale of Medicare Supplement. All first year and renewal commissions on business written under any prior Agreement will be paid in accordance with the provisions of that Agreement. All prior Agreements are otherwise terminated.

9. ARBITRATION

A. Any and all controversies, disputes, or claims arising out of or relating in any manner to this Agreement or the relationships resulting from this Agreement, including, but not limited to, issues relating to the commissions payable hereunder (a "Dispute"), whether based on or arising from a breach of contract, tort, equity, or seeking any other form or type of remedy under any state or federal constitutional provision or amendment, statute, regulation, court or administrative decision or other law, as well as any question regarding whether a particular controversy is subject to arbitration, shall be submitted to binding arbitration as provided herein.

B. The Company and Agent agree to reasonably and diligently attempt to reconcile their differences in good faith promptly by negotiations. If they are unable to resolve a Dispute within ten (10) days (the "Negotiation Period"), the Company and Agent agree such Dispute shall be settled solely and exclusively through binding arbitration. The parties intend this Section to be enforceable in accordance with the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. Section 1, et seq.), including any amendments to that Act which are subsequently adopted, notwithstanding any other choice of law provision set forth in this Agreement. In the event that either party refuses to submit to arbitration as required herein, the other party may request a United States Federal District Court Houston Division to compel arbitration in accordance with the Federal Arbitration Act. Both parties consent to the jurisdiction of such court to enforce this article and to confirm and enforce the performance of any award of the arbitrators. To initiate arbitration, either party shall notify the other in writing of its desire to arbitrate, stating the nature of the dispute and the remedy sought, and designating an arbitrator (the "Arbitration Demand"). The party to which the Arbitration Demand is sent shall respond thereto in writing within thirty (30) days of its receipt. In such response, the responding party shall also assert any claim, defense and other dispute it may have against the party initiating arbitration and designate its arbitrator. If the second party fails to respond within the time period set forth in this Section, or fails to designate its arbitrator in its response, the party initiating arbitration shall appoint a second arbitrator. The two arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the designation of the second arbitrator. If they are unable to agree upon the selection of the third arbitrator, they shall, within such period, each name three (3) individuals of whom the other shall decline two (2), and the decision of the third arbitrator shall be determined by drawing lots from the two remaining designees. All arbitrators shall be active or retired officers of life or health insurance companies and be unaffiliated in any way with the parties and disinterested in the outcome of the arbitration. The arbitrators shall have the power to determine all procedural rules for the conduct of the arbitration. The arbitrators' powers shall also include all legal and equitable remedies, including, but not limited to, money damages, declaratory relief, and injunctive relief. The decision, in writing, of the arbitrators shall be final and binding upon both of the parties. Judgment may be entered upon the final decision of the arbitrators in any court having jurisdiction in deciding the dispute, the arbitrators shall be bound by, and shall faithfully apply, the laws of the State of Texas. The arbitrators are not empowered under any circumstances to award punitive or treble damages, whether at common-law or statutory in source.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 2. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 2.

Social security number
Employer identification number

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 2 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 2.)

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must get your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to give your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

If you are a foreign person, use the appropriate Form W-8. See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities.

Note: If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 30% of such payments after December 31, 2001 (29% after December 31, 2003). This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

- You do not furnish your TIN to the requester, or
- You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 2 for details), or
- The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN, or
- The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions on page 2 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of Federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

First year commissions and renewal commissions shall be calculated according to the above percentages by product type sold. The first year commission and renewal commission percentages shown in the schedules of commission are percentages of the original premium received and accepted for policies written for Family Life Insurance Company.

First year commissions are paid for the first 12 months of the policy, beginning on the effective date of the policy. Renewal commissions are paid after the one year anniversary of the policy.

For flexible premium universal life plans, commissions for scheduled premiums will be paid based on the premium due date. For additional payments, commissions will be paid based on the date the premium is applied to the policy.

Commissions are not paid on premiums waived, suspended, or paid under the automatic premium loan provisions.

Commissions for policies resulting from a policy conversion, replacement or other form of policy change will be determined by the Company. Commissions will be paid on substandard policies with permanent ratings. If the policy contains a temporary rating, no commission will be paid on the temporary rating.

Any change to the above schedules will be applicable only to policies issued on applications received more than thirty (30) days after notice of such change has been mailed to the agent's last known address on file with the Company.

Family Life Insurance Company
Houston, Texas

For any lapsed policy which is subsequently reinstated, the Company is relieved of any further commissions due for the policy unless the reinstatement application was procured by the agent.

Commissions will not be paid on premiums paid to or deposited with the Company in advance of when such premium is due and is paid according to the premium due dates specified in the original policy.

Commission on the total premiums for any policy to which a term rider is attached shall be at the rates in the schedule for the base policy without the rider.

The agent writing the policy shall be entitled to first year and renewal commissions as provided in the above schedules except when the policy has been transferred to another agent for any of the following reasons:

- Another agent rewrites a policy.
- Another agent reinstates a lapsed, cancelled or terminated policy.

In the absence of specific information to the contrary, the books, records, accounting and statistical procedures of the Company shall control in determining all matters in connection with the above schedules of commission.

Company Policy:

All Company contracts and agreements provide that, if an agent commits any offense which would be a basis under any insurance code for denial or revocation of agent's license, the Company shall have the right to terminate the contract or agreement and all rights to receive commissions. All insurance codes provide that an agent's license may be denied or revoked if the agent materially misrepresents the terms and conditions of insurance policies or contracts, has been guilty of fraudulent or dishonest practices, or has otherwise shown untrustworthiness in the conduct of business and has exposed the public or those whom they are dealing to the danger of loss through wrongful acts of or practices.

TWO OF THE MOST SERIOUS OFFENSES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1. Forgery. Signing an applicant's name or initials to any document involved in the insurance contract, including amendments, or making any changes in such documents without the applicants signature or initials.
2. Personal use of funds. Using the agent's own funds for binding an insurance risk with the initial premium (cash with application).

Such unauthorized conduct is a violation of any agent's duty under the insurance codes and could lead to a conviction under the criminal law. It cannot be tolerated under any circumstances. Because the maintenance of Manhattan Life Insurance Company, Family Life Insurance Company, Investors Consolidated and Central United Life Insurance Company's reputations with prospects, policyholders, lending institutions, and others requires the highest integrity on the part of the agents, it is our policy to terminate for cause the contract or agreements of any agent who commits an offense of the sort mentioned above.
